

Happy Sunday Seaman Families,

Our week was a busy one and will continue to remain busy until the end of the school year. Our kindergarten and first graders had the pleasure of kicking off the homestretch with author, Dan Yaccarino, on Monday. He shared his inspirations and writing processes with our young authors. The week ended with the administration of the New York State English Language Arts exam for our third, fourth, and fifth grade students.

The Multicultural Fair will finally take place this Wednesday evening, from 6:00-7:30pm. We are looking forward to viewing our students' projects, sharing food from our differing cultures, and viewing student performances from around the world. It is always such a special evening. We look forward to seeing everyone on Wednesday.

Hard to believe but our Incoming Kindergarten Parent Orientation will also take place this week, on Thursday evening. If you know of anyone who has an incoming kindergarten student and has not registered yet to please touch base with Mary ASAP - 516-203-3630.

Reminder - our next PTA Meeting will take place on Wednesday morning at 9:30am, in the Seaman Cafeteria. The next SEPTA Meeting will take place Tuesday at 7:00pm, in the Middle School Library. Enjoy last week's Tweets by clicking the link below.

Have a great day,

Ivy
